HEAD COACH RYAN SILVERFIELD

Ryan Silverfield, one of the nation's winningest coaches over the last three seasons, has been named the 35th head coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Silverfield has been one of the most successful head coaches in the country since taking over the Memphis program in December 2019, going 50-25, including a pair of 10+ win seasons in 2023 and 2024, while earning bowl eligibility in all six years. With eight wins last season, Memphis has posted 29 victories over the last three seasons to be among the nation's Top 15 programs in wins. His final Tigers team also extended the program's streak to 12 straight bowl appearances – the longest streak among non-Power 4 programs in the nation.

The 2025 Tigers featured an explosive offense once again, finishing the regular season No. 19 in the FBS averaging 34.6 points per game to mark the fourth consecutive season a Memphis team has ranked inside the Top 25 for points per game at the end of a season. All six of Silverfield's Memphis teams have averaged 30+ points per game. The Tigers are one of just five schools nationally to rank in the Top 20 in scoring in each of the past three seasons, joining Notre Dame, Oregon, Ole Miss and Texas State.

The team's defense has shown steady improvement over the last three seasons, allowing just 22.5 points per game this year – the best of the Silverfield era and third-best in the American Conference this season. The Tigers' defense also ranked third in the American allowing 361.1 yards per game, a number that has improved dramatically over the last two seasons. The team's 19 forced turnovers also helped Memphis rank 13th in the FBS in turnover margin at plus-9.

Memphis' historic 2024 season saw the Tigers accomplish back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in program history with an 11-2 record capped off by a Frisco Bowl win over West Virginia. The 11-win campaign was good enough to place the Tigers in the final Coaches Poll at No. 23 and the final AP poll at No. 24, the first time Memphis had finished inside the Top 25 of either poll since 2019. That Memphis team also cracked the College Football Playoff Top 25 in December at No. 25 after a win over Tulane to snap the Green Wave's 17-game conference winning streak. The Tigers spent 10 weeks ranked or receiving votes in the AP Poll and received votes or were ranked in 14 out of 17 editions of the Coaches Poll.

Silverfield became the first Memphis head coach in history to win Tennessee Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year honors for the second time in 2023 after leading the Tigers to a 10-2 season. His squad captured just the fifth 10-win season in program history and won his school record fourth bowl game with a 36-26 win over Iowa State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

The 2022 Tigers won their second consecutive bowl game to make him the first Memphis head coach to win back-to-back bowl games.

In 2021, true freshman QB Seth Henigan earned Freshman All-America honors while leading the Tigers. He passed for 3,322 yards and 25 touchdowns to shatter the school's freshman passing yards record and rank sixth overall on the program's single-season list. His 25 touchdowns matched the seventh-most in school history.

His first season as the Tigers' head coach ended with an 8-3 record during the 2020 season. Silverfield's .727 winning percentage set the school record for winning percentage by a head coach, with the team's eight wins matching Mike Norvell's record for a first-year head coach. On the field, Memphis ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (453.1) and finished 17th in the country in both passing offense (307.9) and first down offense (260). Defensively, the Tigers were 13th in turnovers gained (20), 17th in passes intercepted (12) and 19th in red zone defense (.744).

After more than 18 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and NFL levels, Silverfield joined the Memphis staff in 2016 as the team's offensive line coach and quickly began his ascension on the Tigers' staff earning a promotion to Run Game Coordinator in 2017 before being named Assistant Head Coach in 2018 and Deputy Head Coach in 2018.

Silverfield's 2018 offensive line was one of 10 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, given to the best offensive line in college football. He was named one of six finalists for the offensive line coach of the year award sponsored by FootballScoop and has been recognized as one of the top recruiters during his time at Memphis. In 2017, he was tabbed the fourth-best recruiter in The American by 247Sports.com.

Prior to Memphis, Silverfield split the 2015 season at Arizona State as a senior offensive analyst and with the NFL's Detroit Lions as an assistant offensive line coach – his second stint coaching in the NFL. He helped a 2-7 Lions team finish 5-2 over the final two months of the season behind a revamped offensive line that allowed QB Matthew Stafford to throw 17 touchdowns with only one interception during that seven-game stretch.

In 2014, as an offensive consultant, he helped Toledo to a 9-4 mark and a 7-1 record in the Mid-America Conference to win the West division. The nine wins for the Rockets were the team's most since 2001, capped off by a GoDaddy.com Bowl win over Arkansas State. Silverfield's work with the offensive line helped pave the way for one of the best offenses in school history as the Rockets set school records for total offense, total rushing yardage and first downs per game while also ranking among the program's top-five in points per game (2nd), touchdowns scored (3rd) and rushing touchdowns (3rd). The offense led the MAC in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense and first downs with RB Kareem Hunt leading the league in rushing (1,631 yards) and leading FBS in yards per carry (8.0).

Silverfield spent six seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (2008-13) working with both the offensive and defensive lines. During his time in Minneapolis, the Vikings won a pair of NFC North Division titles with three playoff appearances, including the 2009 NFC Championship game. He worked with an offensive line that blocked for NFL MVP Adrian Peterson in 2012 as Peterson ran for a league-best 2,097 yards.

At UCF in 2006-07, he worked on both sides of the ball as a graduate assistant. His first season with the Knights was spent with the offense and his second season with a Knights' defense that led the way to a 10-4 season and a Conference USA championship.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. At the age of 23, he served as the head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, Ga. in 2004.

He coached throughout his time during college at Hampden-Sydney College (Va.) starting as an offensive assistant in 2000 before taking over the Tigers' defensive line in 2001-02. He helped the Tigers to a 9-1 record in 2003 as the team's tight ends and H-backs coach during his final season. The offense led the nation with 47.0 points per game and scored 45+ points in all 10 games that season.

Silverfield began his coaching career at his alma mater – The Bolles School – in 1999. As a player at Bolles, he was a member of two state championships in 1995 and 1999, helping the Bulldogs to a No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Super 25 national high school poll.

Silverfield and his wife, Katie, have twin daughters, Adeline and Cecilia.

COACHING STAFF

TIM CRAMSEY
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Tim Cramsey rejoins Silverfield after serving as his offensive coordinator at Memphis. In his four seasons calling plays for the Tigers, his offenses were among the nation's best in scoring, ranking in the Top 25 all four years while averaging 36.3 points per game over 51 games across his tenure.

His final Memphis offense featured a balanced attack in 2025, averaging 420.7 total yards per game with 186.1 yards rushing and 234.6 yards passing. The Tigers' offense featured three All-American Conference selections, including first teamers WR Cortez Braham Jr. and OL Travis Burke. RB Sutton Smith was third-team selection as a running back and a first-team pick as a return specialist. Braham Jr. led the Tigers with 63 receptions, 889 yards and eight touchdowns. Smith paced the Memphis running game with 669 yards on just 102 carries with seven touchdowns. As a returner, Smith combined for 280 yards on 15 punt returns and five kick returns, including a 99-yard touchdown at UAB.

Memphis' 11-win season in 2024 was fueled by Cramsey's offense that helped the Tigers finish the season No. 23 in the Coaches' Poll and No. 24 in the AP Poll. The Tigers averaged 35.7 points per game to rank 12th nationally while averaging 444.5 yards per game to rank 16th in the FBS. QB Seth Henigan became the American Conference's all-time leading passer with 14,266 yards and 104 touchdowns in his four-year career with the Tigers.

Prior to joining Silverfield's Memphis staff, Cramsey served as the offensive coordinator at Marshall for four seasons (2018-21). His 2021 offense finished the year ranked 16th with 456.8 yards per game of total offense and 18th in passing yards per game with 294.4 yards. RB Rasheen Ali earned Freshman All-American honors from the Football Writers Association of America and First-Team All-Conference USA after leading the nation in rushing touchdowns (23), scoring (11.5 ppg), total points (150) and total touchdowns (25). His 1,401 yards were good enough for 10th in the FBS. QB Grant Wells passed for 3,532 yards to finish 15th in the nation. In 2020, Wells earned Conference USA Freshman of the Year and First-Team All-Conference USA. RB Brenden Knox was named Conference USA Most Valuable Player after scoring 11 touchdowns and running for 1,387 yards.

Cramsey has served as an offensive coordinator at seven schools since 2009, when he was promoted to take over the offense at New Hampshire, his alma mater. He called plays at FIU in 2012, Montana State for three seasons (2012-15), Sam Houston State in 2017, Marshall and Memphis.

As a player at New Hampshire (1994-97), Cramsey played quarterback and long snapper. He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Brock and Bryce.

RON ROBERTS
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

The veteran Ron Roberts takes over the Arkansas defense after leading the Florida defense each of the last two seasons.

Roberts brings over 30 years of coaching experience, including head coaching experience at the high school level, Division II level at Delta State and the FCS level at Southeastern Louisiana. He has served as a defensive coordinator at the Power 4 level since 2020 when he led Baylor's defense before taking over Auburn's defense in 2023.

His first Florida defense in 2024 helped the Gators to a late-season rally to win the team's final four games with wins over No. 21 LSU, No. 9 Ole Miss, rival Florida State and Tulane in the Gasparilla Bowl. The Gators' defense finished the season ranked ninth nationally in the red zone (.725), 11th in sacks per game (3.0) and fumbles recovered (11) and 13th with 25 turnovers gained. Florida forced at least one takeaway in 12 of the team's 13 games, including 10 consecutive games.

The Gator defense improved in nearly every statistical category from 2023 to 2024, including sacks (+17), tackles for loss (+28), forced fumbles (+11), pass breakups (+12), interceptions (+11) and turnovers gained (+18).

In his lone season at Auburn, the defense saw improvements and was among the best in the country and SEC in multiple categories.

Roberts guided Auburn to Top 50 finishes in scoring defense, sacks, tackles for loss and total defense. The Tigers also ranked in the Top 25 in third-down defense and first-downs allowed while ranking No. 1 in the SEC in red zone defense. In the conference, Auburn was second in third-down defense, third in pass defense and fourth in interceptions. According to Pro Football Focus (PFF), Roberts' defense graded high in pass coverage (17th), total defense (18th), rushing defense (19th) and tackling (24th).

In his three years at Baylor (2020-22) as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers' coach, he helped the Bears capture the program's third Big 12 Title in program history and first BCS/New Year's Six bowl victory in the modern era.

In 2021, the defense was one of the nation's top units as one of three defenses to limit every opponent to 30 points or less. Baylor led the conference in interceptions (19), turnovers gained (27), turnover margin (0.93) and defensive touchdowns (3). Additionally, the Bears were second in the Big 12 in run defense (118.4 ypg), scoring defense (18.3 PPG), pass efficiency defense (121.54) and sacks per game (3.14).

En route to the conference title, BU held Oklahoma to its lowest scoring (14) and yardage (260) marks in five years under Lincoln Riley. Baylor became the first Big 12 team to hold OU without a passing TD since Nov. 22, 2014, which snapped a 65-game streak for the Sooners.

Roberts' defense also helped capture the 2022 Sugar Bowl while limiting Ole Miss to just seven points, an offense that averaged 28.9 points per game that season. The Bears had 10 sacks in the win to set a Sugar Bowl record as was Al Walcott's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown.

In his first season in Waco in 2020, the defensive unit finished second in the conference in pass defense (203.0 ypg), interceptions (12) and third in turnovers forced (17).

Roberts began his coaching career in 1990 as the head coach at Houston HS in Tennessee. He took over as the head coach at Burroughs HS in his native California in 1994 before spending seven seasons combined at Greensboro (1997), Tusculum (1998-2002) and Texas State (2003) before returning to California and the high school ranks as the head coach at Mount Whitney HS in 2004. Roberts took over the defense at Delta State in 2005 leading the Fighting Okra's defense for two seasons before being named the head coach in 2007. He made the jump to Southeastern Louisiana as the Lions' head coach in 2012. He served as Billy Napier's defensive coordinator at Louisiana for two seasons (2018-19) before leaving for Baylor.

Roberts played at UT Martin, where he was a linebacker. He and his wife, Didi, have three children - Reed, Reilly and Ryan.

CHAD LUNSFORD
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Chad Lunsford joins the Arkansas staff after most recently serving as the special teams coordinator for Auburn in 2025.

Auburn kicker Alex McPherson benefitted from working with Lunsford in his senior season, making a career-best 20 field goals. The Tigers owned one of the better teams units in the Southeastern Conference, allowing just six yards per punt return (5th in SEC) while ranking third in the league with 22.95 yards per kick return, including a kick return for a score.

Lunsford brings a wealth of head coaching experience to the Arkansas staff, having served as head coach at Georgia Southern (2018-21) and as an interim head coach at Florida Atlantic for the final two games in 2024.

He joined FAU in February of 2022 and was elevated to associate head coach in January of 2023. While with the Owls, he served as the team's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

In 2022, freshman punter Riley Thompson ended his season providing every punt for an average of 45.8 yards, ranking second among all C-USA punters and No. 10 nationally for that average. As units, the Owls were No. 14 in kickoff return defense and No. 21 in net punting.

The Owls were ranked No. 4 nationally in punt returns in 2023, a 32-spot leap while the kick return unit moved up 34 spots by averaging nearly three yards more per return than in 2022. Punter Logan Lupo was among the best in the American Conference in 2023 and 2024. His 44.5 yards per punt ranked third in 2024 and his 44.1 average was third in 2023. Punt returner LaJohntay Wester finished second nationally in punt return touchdowns and was a FWAA First-Team All-American and Wester AAC Special Team Player of the Year and First-Team AAC selection.

As the head coach at Georgia Southern, Lunsford went 28-21 taking over as the interim head coach in 2017. In his first full season as the head coach, the Eagles went 10-3 capped by a win in the Camellia Bowl. His first three teams all earned bowl berths with wins in the Camellia Bowl in 2018 and in the New Orleans Bowl in 2020.

Prior to taking over as the head coach at Georgia Southern, Lunsford served as the special teams coordinator (2016), tight ends coach (2014-15) and wide receivers coach (2013) for the Eagles. Lunsford's work with the Eagles' special teams was quickly noticed, earning him a Broyles Award nomination in 2016 after the squad blocked seven kicks and kicker Younghoe Koo was named a Lou Groza Award finalist. Koo was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after a stellar season for the Atlanta Falcons. Lunsford immediately developed another NFL kicker for the Eagles, transforming Tyler Bass into a three-time All-Sun Belt performer before the Buffalo Bills selected him in the sixth round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

He earned his first SEC experience at Auburn 2009-12 in an off-field role as the Tigers' Director of Scouting and Player Personnel. The Tigers brought in three of the nation's top recruiting classes in 2010, 2011 and 2012. His work helped Auburn claim the 2010 BCS national championship and the SEC title.

His coaching career started in 1996 as a student assistant at Georgia Military College. He took over the tight ends at Appalachian State for two seasons (2001-02) before his first opportunity at Georgia Southern as the team's slotbacks coach (2003-05). The Eagles landed the 2004 Southern Conference championship. He coached Georgia Southern's all-time leading receptions leader Raja Andrews, who caught 127 passes and set the program's single-season record with 873 yards.

After stints at Griffin HS (2006) and another at Georgia Military College (2007-08) followed by his time at Auburn, Lunsford found his way back to Georgia Southern in 2013 as the wide receivers coach.

Lunsford is married to the former Tiffany "Tippy" Hyde, the couple has three children – Sophie, Rhett and Josie.

DERON WILSON
CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SECONDARY

Deron Wilson returns to The Hill after one season away coaching the defensive backs at Florida and working with defensive coordinator Ron Roberts. The Florida defense improved against the pass in Wilson's lone season back in Gainesville, allowing 222.9 yards per game.

Wilson coached the Arkansas secondary during the 2023-24 seasons, helping the Hogs' secondary become one of the most improved units on the team. In 2023, Arkansas was fourth in the league in passing yards allowed per game (202.8 ypg) and ranked third with 12 interceptions, including four pick-sixes that tied for the national lead.

The Hogs' secondary was arguably the most improved unit on the team in 2023. The Razorbacks ranked fourth in the SEC in passing yards allowed per game with 202.8 yards, the program's best effort since 2011 when they allowed 195.2 yards per game. Arkansas' 12 interceptions ranked third in the league and the team's four pick-sixes matched five other teams to lead all of FBS. The Hogs' defense scored five total touchdowns on the season, including Jaylon Braxton's fumble return for a score in the win at Florida.

Wilson's work alongside co-defensive coordinator Marcus Woodson was impactful for an entire defense that allowed 357.2 yards per game, the program's fewest yards allowed per game in a decade, but it was clear Wilson's fingerprints were all over a secondary that led the way. Wilson helped mold Braxton into one of the best young cornerbacks in the SEC. He earned Freshman All-SEC honors after posting 20 tackles and a team-best eight pass breakups. Cornerback Dwight McGlothern and safety Alfahiym Walcott led the Hogs with three interceptions each while Jayden Johnson's 62 tackles were third-most on the squad.

Wilson joined the Razorbacks' staff after serving one season at Florida as a quality control analyst working with the Gators' cornerbacks. In his lone season in The Swamp, Wilson worked alongside cornerbacks coach Corey Raymond to improve sophomores Jaydon Hill and Jalen Kimber. Hill led the Gators with two interceptions, including a pick-six against Missouri.

Prior to joining the staff at Florida, Wilson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McNeese (2020-21). He was named the Cowboys' interim defensive coordinator a week prior to the spring season opener against Tarleton State. The Pokes played seven games in the spring of 2021 following the canceled 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Wilson's secondary improved during the spring season, allowing 35 fewer yards passing compared to 2019. The defense improved even more during the Cowboys' fall 2021 season, giving up fewer points per game, rushing yards per game, passing yards per game and points per game. Defensive lineman Isaiah Chambers was named the Southland Conference's Defensive Player of the Year and joined defensive lineman Mason Kinsey, linebacker Kordell Williams and defensive back Andre Sam as the Cowboys placed four defenders on the All-Southland Conference first team.

Wilson coached at UTSA for four seasons, spending the final two as the Roadrunners' cornerbacks coach after starting as a graduate assistant. In Wilson's first season leading the unit, the Roadrunners' cornerbacks added to the team's 19 turnovers with seven of the team's nine interceptions. Cassius Grady matched the UTSA single-season record with four interceptions and finished with 45 tackles. Clayton Johnson picked off a pair of passes despite missing the final five games while Teddrick McGhee added one interception despite playing in just six games.

UTSA boasted one of the nation's top defenses in 2017, as the Roadrunners led Conference USA in seven different statistical categories and ranked in the Top 10 among all Football Bowl Subdivision teams in five. UTSA held eight of its 11 opponents to under 300 yards of total offense, including a school-record 149 yards in a 51-17 win over Southern, and five teams to less than 100 yards rushing, highlighted by a program-record 37 yards at Texas State in a 44-14 win.

During his time as a graduate assistant, Wilson helped tutor a secondary that saw three players – Michael Egwuagu, Nate Gaines and Jordan Moore – earn All-Conference USA honors as the Roadrunners earned bowl eligibility in back-to-back seasons.

Wilson was a standout cornerback at Southern Miss from 2010-12 and a Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List honoree before an ankle injury sidelined him for his senior season in 2013. He helped lead the Golden Eagles to consecutive bowl games while starting 39 straight games. He finished his career with 171 tackles and eight interceptions, including four returned for touchdowns.

He was a Phil Steele Freshman All-American and earned C-USA All-Freshman Team and second-team all-conference accolades in 2010 after registering 35 tackles, three interceptions, 12 pass breakups, one blocked punt and a pair of defensive scores. As a sophomore, he helped the Golden Eagles to a C-USA title making 75 tackles with four interceptions and a team-best 17 passes defended to earn second-team all-league honors from Phil Steele.

Wilson earned a degree in interdisciplinary studies from Southern Miss in May 2013.

The New Orleans, La. native starred at O. Perry Walker HS earning all-district honors three times and all-area twice while being ranked as the No. 44 player in the state as a senior in 2008.

He is married to the former Paige Alexander and has twin children – a son, Deron Kadeem Wilson II, and a daughter, Dakota Marie Wilson.

KYNJEE' COTTON
DEFENSIVE RUN GAME COORDINATOR/DL

Kynjee' Cotton comes to Arkansas after spending the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the Miami Dolphins as the assistant defensive line coach.

His two seasons in the NFL came after more than a decade of coaching in the collegiate ranks. His work with the 2024 Dolphins helped the team produce a top-five defense, ranking fourth in total defense allowing 314.4 yards per game. Cotton helped defensive tackles Calais Campbell and Zach Sieler produce at a high level with Sieler leading the team with 10.0 sacks and 13.0 tackles for loss. Campbell recorded 12 tackles for loss, second on the squad.

Cotton brings SEC experience, having spent the 2023 season at LSU as a senior defensive analyst and a year as a strength and conditioning assistant at Alabama early in his career (2013). His lone season with the Tigers was a 10-3 campaign ending with a No. 12 ranking in the final AP and Coaches polls.

In 2022, Cotton helped transform Travis Bell into an All-ASUN performer at Kennesaw State. Bell then became the first NFL Draft pick in program history when he was taken in the seventh round by Chicago in the 2023 NFL Draft. Cotton spent three seasons (2019-21) at Samford coaching defensive ends. During the spring season of 2021, he helped Nelson Jordan earn Second-Team All-Southern Conference honors after leading the team with 7.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks.

Cotton coached the defensive line at West Georgia in 2018 after spending two seasons at North Carolina as a defensive quality control. He earned his first on-field coaching position at Birmingham Southern in 2015 as the team's defensive line coach after spending the 2014 season as a graduate assistant at UAB. Cotton was a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Alabama during the fall of 2013, where he worked with football, baseball and rowing. His coaching career began as a student assistant at Alabama State in 2012.

He was a four-year letterman at Alabama State as a defensive lineman. He served as a team captain and was named Second-Team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference as a senior. He is married to his wife, Chatil.

EDDIE HICKS
CORNERBACKS

Eddie Hicks comes to Arkansas from Cincinnati, where he coached the Bearcats' cornerbacks in 2025.

The Cincinnati defense allowed 24.8 points per game to help the Bearcats earn an invitation to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Senior Logan Wilson broke up six passes to lead the team's cornerbacks and help the Bearcats post a coverage grade of 77.5 according to Pro Football Focus.

Hicks spent two seasons at LSU as the Tigers' lead defensive analyst (2023-24). The Tigers won 19 games during his two seasons, including a 10-3 mark in 2023. He coached at Jacksonville State as the Gamecocks' cornerbacks coach in 2022 with the team going 9-2 in their final season in FCS. The defense allowed just 216.0 passing yards per game while intercepting eight passes.

Over his three seasons at Charlotte coaching the cornerbacks, the 49ers set a school record for wins (7) and the program's longest winning streak (5) while also earning the first bowl game in school history with a trip to the 2019 Bahamas Bowl. The 2019 49ers defense was the second-best against the pass in Conference USA, allowing 189.0 yards per game. Cornerback Nafees Lyon, who was the nation's top DB against post routes according to Pro Football Focus, earned All-Conference USA honorable mention. Fellow defensive back Lance McMillan was a C-USA All-Freshman Team selection.

Hicks returned to his alma mater, Southern Miss, in 2018 as the Golden Eagles' cornerbacks coach. His work helped the defense lead Conference USA and rank 10th nationally in passing defense, yielding just 175.6 yards per game. The Eagles' 14 interceptions ranked fourth in the league with Ky'el Hemby's six picks paced C-USA.

Hicks earned his first on-field coaching position at Murray State in 2015 as the Racers' defensive backs coach before moving onto Austin Peay, where he coached for two seasons (2016-17). At Austin Peay, he was part of one of the most remarkable turnarounds in college football as the Govs bounced back from consecutive winless seasons to go 8-4 in 2017. That team snapped a 29-game losing streak in 2017 en route to the program's first winning record in a decade.

He began his coaching career in 2012 as a graduate assistant at Alcorn State before spending a year at Cincinnati as a graduate assistant in 2013 and a year at Cal in 2014 as a defensive quality control.

Hicks played at Southern Miss, graduating in 2009. He registered 238 tackles and 13 interceptions during his career, earning All-Conference USA accolades in 2008 and 2009 with an All-Freshman team nod in 2006. His Golden Eagles teams played in four bowl games during his tenure, winning the GMAC Bowl in 2006 and New Orleans Bowl in 2008.

He and his wife, JoTrina, have two sons – Eddie IV and Jayvion – and one daughter – Emani.

DAVID JOHNSON
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

David Johnson joins the Arkansas staff from Florida State, where he coached the Seminoles running backs and served as the program's recruiting coordinator since 2020.

Throughout his career, he has coached 19 all-conference players who have earned a combined 29 all-conference honors, including Special Teams Player of the Year. At least one Johnson coached player heard his name called in seven consecutive drafts (2018-24).

Florida State's rushing attack led the ACC in yards per game this past season, averaging 218.7 yards while scoring a league-best 31 rushing touchdowns.

While at Florida State, Johnson helped build the Seminoles back into a national power in 2023 when the team went 13-0 during the regular season, including an ACC Championship. The Seminoles averaged 34.6 points per game – bolstered by 20 different players scoring at least one touchdown to match a program record – and ranked 18th in the country. The Seminoles also led the ACC with 61 total touchdowns scored, including 32 on the ground. Trey Benson finished the season with 1,133 all-purpose yards to go with 14 rushing touchdowns and one receiving score. His 14 rushing TDs total tied for seventh on FSU's single-season list and ranked second in the ACC and 15th nationally that year. Lawrance Toafili earned ACC Championship Game MVP after running for a career-high 118 yards, including a career-long 73-yard run, and the go-ahead touchdown in Florida State's 16-6 victory.

Johnson's running backs contributed to one of the most explosive offenses in the nation in 2022 while helping lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP poll. Florida State led the nation averaging 7.5 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship season. The team's 214.1 rushing yards per game were the most by a FSU team since 1995, fueled by eight games of 200+ yards rushing, including seven consecutive to end the regular season.

The Seminoles' offense led the ACC in eight different categories: third-down offense, yards per pass, yards per play, yards per rush, total offense, yards per completion, rushing offense and scoring offense. FSU was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of only two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022.

Florida State's average of 214.1 rushing yards per game was the program's most since 1995, fueled by eight 200-yard rushing games, including a school-record-tying seven consecutive to end the regular season. In the season opener, FSU had three 100-yard rushers for the first time in school history and in the regular season finale, a 45-38 win over Florida, the Seminoles' five rushing touchdowns were the most by a Gator opponent since 1997.

Benson led the running backs with five 100-yard rushing games and led the league with his average of 5.5 yards per carry to earn Second-Team All-ACC. Treshaun Ward, who recorded a pair of 100-yard rushing games, was an honorable mention all-conference selection and semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy despite missing four games due to injury. Johnson's running backs combined for 2,283 rushing yards and 24 scores.

The 2021 season featured a breakout performance by All-ACC running back Jashaun Corbin. The redshirt sophomore gained 1,159 all-purpose yards with an average of 6.2 yards per carry to lead the ACC and rank 16th nationally among ball carriers with at least 10 rushing attempts per game. Corbin's speed was on display with touchdown runs of 89 yards against Notre Dame and 75 yards against Louisville. He was the only player in the ACC and one of six in the FBS with multiple 75-yard runs during the 2021 season and only the fourth player in FSU history with multiple 75-yard touchdown runs in a season.

In his first year at Florida State, Johnson coached a room full of newcomers as Florida State's running back room returned zero scholarship players from the 2019 season. He utilized the group's youth and versatility to account for 1,855 all-purpose yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Seminoles averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game, the program's best since 2016. In the season finale, a 56-35 win over Duke, Florida State rushed for six touchdowns – just the second time in program history with six rushing touchdowns in a league game – and 346 yards – the most by Florida State since 2012.

Prior to Florida State, Johnson coached at Tennessee for two years, leading the Volunteers' wide receivers in 2018 before taking of the team's running backs in 2019. RB Eric Gray broke UT's single-game true freshman rushing record with 246 yards against Vanderbilt, a total that ranked fifth on the Vols' all-time list. Nationally, it was the ninth-highest single-game total, and most by a true freshman, in 2019. Gray earned Gator Bowl MVP after recovering an onside kick and scoring the game-winning touchdown 30 seconds later. The 2018 team ranked sixth in the SEC with an average of 7.9 yards per catch and had four different receivers average more than 14.0 yards per reception, led by Josh Palmer's 21.04 average.

He coached alongside Silverfield at Memphis during the 2016-17 seasons as the Tigers' wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. He developed former walk-on Anthony Miller into a consensus All-American in 2017 after Miller led the country with 18 receiving touchdowns, ranked third with 1,462 receiving yards and fifth with 96 receptions. Miller was selected 51st overall in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. Memphis concluded the 2017 season ranked second in the country in points per game (45.5), fourth in total offense (523.1), sixth in passing efficiency (160.2) and seventh in passing yards per game (335.0)

The 2016 season was Miller's breakout year as he re-wrote Memphis' single-season records with 95 catches, 1,434 yards and 14 touchdowns. Those numbers all improved in Johnson's second season working with Miller. The 2016 Tigers ranked 14th in the country with 304.4 passing yards per game, and their 38.8 points-per-game average was 15th.

Johnson spent four seasons at Tulane coaching running backs and tight ends. The Green Wave played in the team's first bowl game in over a decade in 2013 when RB Orleans Darkwa earned MVP honors in the New Orleans Bowl after scoring three touchdowns. Johnson also developed a pair of Freshman All-Americans in RB Sherman Badie and TE Charles Jones.

Johnson began his coaching career at his alma mater, John F. Kennedy HS in Louisiana, as the team's wide receivers and tight ends coach before becoming the offensive coordinator at O. Perry Walker HS (La.). As offensive coordinator at John F. Kennedy HS and O. Perry Walker HS. He helped direct O. Perry Walker to three straight district championships and the 2002 state championship game while coaching All-American Craig Davis, a first-round selection by the Chargers in 2007 after winning a national championship at LSU, and Mike Wallace, who was taken in the third round in 2009 out of Ole Miss.

Johnson got his first taste of college football at Millsaps College for four seasons (2005-08) as the wide receivers and tight ends coach. He returned to high school football in 2009 when he began a successful stint as the head coach at St. Augustine HS (La.). He led the Purple Knights to district titles in 2010 and 2011, earning the district's Coach of the Year honor in 2011. During his time at St. Augustine, he coached future NFL players and All-Americans Tyrann Mathieu and Leonard Fournette Jr.

Johnson played at Nicholls State, where he earned All-Southland Conference honorable mention as a wide receiver in 1992 and again as a wide receiver and punt returner in 1993. He led the Colonels in each of those seasons, combining for 50 receptions for 990 yards and eight touchdowns over those two years.

Johnson and his wife, Akeia, have two sons – Jermaine and Karaaz – and one daughter – De'Von.

MARCUS JOHNSON
OFFENSIVE LINE

Marcus Johnson is no stranger to the SEC, having played at Ole Miss with coaching stops at Mississippi State and Missouri on his resume.

He spent the 2025 season with Ohio State as the program's assistant offensive line coach. The Buckeyes' offense has been among the nation's best all season averaging 34.9 points per game while earning a spot in the College Football Playoff. The OSU offensive line has allowed only 11.0 sacks through 13 games this season. Luke Montgomery and Austin Siereveld were both named to the All-Big Ten second team.

Prior to Ohio State, Johnson spent two seasons at Purdue leading the offensive line. His first Boilermakers' line helped produce the best running attack at Purdue in over a decade despite battling injury to multiple linemen during the 2023 season. The team ran for 2,029 yards – the most since 2012 – and produced consecutive 300-yard rushing games for the first time since 1968, including the most in a Big Ten game that season with 353 yards vs. Minnesota. Gus Hartwig and Marcus Mbow picked up All-Big Ten Honorable Mention recognition for their efforts.

At Missouri, Johnson was promoted in May 2021 to Assistant Head Coach and Run Game Coordinator after helping the 2020 Tigers average 135.2 yards rushing per game and score 21 touchdowns. His first o-line ranked fourth in the SEC and 30th nationally allowing only 1.6 sacks per game. The Tigers improved in the run game in 2021, averaging 179.8 yards per game with 22 scores while RB Tyler Badie set a school record with 1,604 yards, including five 200-yard games. Johnson's OL improved in protection as well, yielding 1.4 sacks per game to rank third in the league and 20th nationally. Center Michael Maietti earned Second-Team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus along with All-SEC honors.

Johnson coached the offensive line for two seasons at Mississippi State (2018-19), helping the Bulldogs to berths in the Outback Bowl and Music City Bowl. The Bulldogs' running game was among the best in the league both years Johnson was in Starkville, ranking second in the league in 2018 rushing yards per game and third in 2019 when RB Kylin Hill All-SEC first team honors after running for 1,350 yards and 10 scores.

Johnson's first offensive line at MSU was anchored by First-Team All-American Elgton Jenkins, who was picked 44th overall by Green Bay in the 2019 NFL Draft.

At Duke, Johnson began his coaching career under his former college coach, David Cutcliffe. Johnson joined the staff in 2011 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach before moving to an offensive quality control role for three seasons then taking over his first on-field coaching job as the offensive line coach in 2016. He developed center Austin Davis into an All-ACC performer in 2017.

Johnson was a Second-Team All-SEC offensive lineman at Ole Miss as a senior team captain. He was a second-round selection by Minnesota in the 2005 NFL Draft before playing four seasons for the Vikings and one season for Tampa Bay.

He and his wife, Veullana, have three children – London, Meraki and Violette.

JEFF MYERS
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

Jeff Myers was named Arkansas' run game coordinator and offensive line coach by Head Coach Ryan Silverfield, joining the Razorbacks' staff from Memphis.

Myers coached the Tigers for three seasons with Silverfield, earning the title of running game coordinator in 2024. His offensive lines were an integral part of the Tigers' success on offense, including three-straight seasons ranking in the Top 20 nationally in scoring offense. His offensive line protected at an elite level when the Tigers won 21 games combined in 2023 and 2024 as one of just 18 teams in the country to allow fewer than 20 sacks in consecutive seasons, giving up 19 during the 2023 and 2024 seasons.

In 2025, Myers' offensive line was anchored by First-Team All-American Conference lineman Travis Burke. Burke and his fellow linemen paved the way for a Tigers' offense that averaged 420.7 yards per game while averaging 34.6 points per game. The running game was key for Memphis with 186.1 yards per game, including 77 runs of 10+ yards.

The 2024 Tigers won 11 games, capped by a Frisco Bowl victory over West Virginia, and were led by an offense that averaged a league-best 35.7 points per game. Tackle Xavier Hill earned first-team honors from the league's coaches with guard Jonah Gambill and center Trent Holler picking up third-team recognition.

The offense was among the nation's elite in numerous categories, ranking 16th overall in total yards per game (444.5 ypg), 20th in passing yards per game (270.5 ypg) and second in turnover margin (1.38) with only eight turnovers in 13 games. RB Mario Anderson Jr. benefitted from Myers' offensive line, averaging 104.8 rushing yards per game to gain 1,362 yards and score 18 rushing touchdowns - 10th nationally. Senior QB Seth Henigan appreciated the protection, as the Tigers allowed only 19 sacks to help Henigan pass for 3,502 yards and 25 touchdowns. Two of Myers' linemen picked up all-conference honors with tackle Xavier Hill getting a second-team nod and center Jacob Likes being named to the conference's third team.

Myers' first offensive line at Memphis in 2023 paved the way for an offense that ranked sixth nationally in scoring (39.4 ppg), 10th in passing offense (306.5 ypg) and 14th in total offense (458.5 ypg). Memphis finished off the program's fifth 10-win season with a 36-26 win over Iowa State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Henigan was kept clean by his o-line, who allowed only 19 sacks all season, to throw for 3,883 yards - fourth-most in FBS - and 32 scores - sixth-most in FBS. First-Team All-American Conference RB Blake Watson topped the 1,000-yard mark with 1,152 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Before joining the Tigers' staff, Myers spent seven seasons at Iowa State, the last five as the Cyclones' offensive line coach. The Iowa State offense during his tenure were among the best in school history. Seven of his offensive linemen earned All-Big 12 honors during his time leading the unit. Julian Good-Jones (2019), Colin Newell (2020) and Trevor Downing (2021) were all named First-Team All-Big 12 while Downing was named a Freshman All-American by The Athletic in 2019 and Darrell Simmons in 2020.

The Cyclones' offense in 2020 was elite in leading the squad to a first-place finish in the Big 12, making the Big 12 championship game and qualifying for a New Year's Six bowl for the first time in school history - a 24-17 win over Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl.

Iowa State broke the school record for total offense (444.3) and posted the third-best scoring offense (32.2) in program history in 2019 and followed it up with the second-best scoring offense (32.9) and third-best total offense (436.3) totals in Cyclone history in 2020.

Myers developed a young offensive line into a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award in 2020, the award given annually to the nation's top offensive line. The group allowed the fewest sacks in the Big 12 (14) and aided the team in breaking the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 31, scoring two or more rushing touchdowns in 11 of 12 games.

In 2019, Myers was named to 247Sports 30Under30 list as one of the profession's young, rising stars.

Myers' o-line led the way for a pair of 1,000-yard rushers at Iowa State in All-Americans David Montgomery and Breece Hall. Montgomery, a third-round pick by the Chicago Bears in 2019, and Hall, one of only two consensus All-Americans in Iowa State history. Hall was the nation's leading rusher in 2020 (1,572) and broke the all-time NCAA FBS record for consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (24).

He began his coaching career in 2015 as a graduate assistant at Toledo before heading to Iowa State as a graduate assistant during the 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Myers played at Toledo, graduating in 2014. The Massillon, Ohio native was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Rockets, starting 38 consecutive games. He earned All-MAC honors twice and was named team captain in 2014 when Toledo went 9-4 with a GoDaddy Bowl win capping the season.

Myers and his wife, Lauren, have one daughter, Kalani.

LARRY SMITH
WIDE RECEIVERS

Larry Smith has been tabbed to lead the Arkansas wide receivers by Head Coach Ryan Silverfield.

Smith spent the last three seasons as the wide receivers coach on Silverfield's Memphis staff after joining the Tigers from UAB.

The Tigers' receiving corps was led by transfer Cortez Braham Jr. in 2025. Braham Jr. earned First-Team All-American Conference honors after leading the team with 63 receptions for 889 yards and eight touchdowns. Memphis' top four pass catchers all came from Smith's room with Braham Jr., Jamari Hawkins (34 catches, 591 yards), Marcello Bussey (24, 253) and Brady Kluse (21, 230) combining for nearly 70% of the Tigers' receiving yards.

Memphis posted the program's second consecutive 10-win season in 2024, going 11-2 with a Frisco Bowl win over West Virginia. Roc Taylor led the Tigers and ranked second in the American Conference with 950 yards to earn first-team all-conference honors. Taylor teamed up with Demeer Blankumsee (45 catches, 677 yards) and Koby Drake (39, 484) to form one of the best receiving trios in the league with all three ranking in the Top 25 for receptions and yards.

Taylor picked up Second-Team All-American Conference honors in 2023 thanks to a 1,000-yard season. He caught 69 passes for 1,083 yards and four touchdowns before finishing the season 20th in FBS with 83.3 yards per game. The Memphis offense was explosive, ranking sixth nationally in scoring (39.4 ppg), 10th in passing yards per game (306.5), 14th in total offense (458.5) and 17th in both passing efficiency (154.79) and completion percentage (.667) to help the Tigers go 10-3 with a Liberty Bowl win over Iowa State.

Smith served seven seasons on staff at UAB as the Blazers' wide receivers coach beginning in 2016. He helped lead the program back to the playing field in 2017 after the program was shut down. UAB played in three bowl games and captured a pair of Conference USA crowns during his tenure.

In 2022, Smith's wide receivers earned all-conference accolades, as both Trea Shropshire and Tejhuan Palmer picked up honorable mention recognition. Shropshire reeled in a team-best 41 passes for 923 yards and six scores, while Palmer was second on the team with 30 catches for 479 yards and two touchdowns.

Smith's wide receivers played a vital role in UAB's success during the 2021 season, highlighted by Trea Shropshire who led the nation and set a school record in yards per reception at 26.04. He finished the season with 27 catches for 703 yards and seven touchdowns. The standout wide receiver also caught the game-winning touchdown in UAB's 31-28 victory over No. 13 BYU in the Independence Bowl to cap a 9-4 season. The victory over BYU marked UAB's highest ranked victory in school history.

In 2020, led by the trio Austin Watkins Jr., Myron Mitchell and Shropshire, the receiving corps was responsible for nine of the team's 14 receiving touchdowns. Watkins Jr. led the group with 34 receptions for 468 yards and three touchdowns to earn First-Team All-CUSA. Mitchell earned Conference USA honorable mention accolades after compiling 29 catches for 436 yards. Shropshire lit up the Conference USA Championship game, catching five passes for 180 yards and a touchdown in the Blazers' 22-13 win to capture the program's second conference crown in three years.

Smith's wide receivers were among the most productive in the nation in 2019, led by Watkins Jr., Myron Mitchell and Kendall Parham. The three wide receivers combined for 120 of UAB's 192 catches and 2,254 of the 2,815 yards. Watkins Jr. paced the group with 57 catches for 1,092 yards, and in the process became just the third player in UAB history to surpass 1,000 receiving yards in a season – joining Roddy White and Derrick Ingram. Watkins Jr. was named Second-Team All-Conference USA. Mitchell also earned all-conference accolades, finishing with 34 catches for 554 yards for an honorable mention nod. Parham finished sixth nationally in yards per reception at 20.97 (29 catches for 608 yards).

In 2018, Smith helped guide the Blazers to their best season in program history as UAB finished 11-3 overall and won the program's first Conference USA title and bowl game.

Smith's group was led by Xavier Ubosi, who wrote his name into the UAB record book at the Boca Raton Bowl, thanks to seven receptions for 227 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Blazers to a 37-13 victory over Northern Illinois. Ubosi set the then-Boca Raton Bowl record for receiving yards with 227, the third most in a single game in school history at UAB. He finished the season with team bests in receiving yards (839) and touchdowns (7).

Overall, the Blazers established 21 school records during the 2018 campaign, including total points (419), total touchdowns (53), total yards (5,680) and single-game yards (668 vs. UTSA). The top four wide receivers in Ubosi, Andre Wilson, Collin Lisa and Kailon Carter combined for 123 catches, 2,285 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Smith's first season coaching wide receivers at UAB came in 2017 as he helped guide the Blazers to an 8-5 overall record in UAB's first year back on the playing field after a two-year hiatus.

He oversaw the development of standout Andre Wilson who finished the season with 54 catches for 677 yards and six touchdowns. Wilson's 54 catches were the fifth-most in a single season at UAB, while his 677 yards ranked 10th all-time. His efforts earned him an All-CUSA honorable mention nod from the league's coaches.

A former Vanderbilt quarterback, Smith began his coaching career at Jacksonville State in 2013 as a graduate assistant before being promoted to the Gamecocks' quarterbacks coach. In 2015, he helped turn QB Eli Jenkins into All-American when he passed for nearly 4,000 yards and 36 touchdowns to lead the Gamecocks to the FCS National Championship Game for the first time in program history.

Smith started 27 games at Vanderbilt during his career, helping lead the program back to the postseason for the first time in over 25 years in 2008 and again in 2011. He earned his first career start in the Music City Bowl as a freshman with his final start coming in the Liberty Bowl as a senior.

He and his wife, Nichele, have two sons – Tripp and Karter.

MITCH STEWART
QUARTERBACKS

Head Coach Ryan Silverfield selected a familiar name when he tabbed Mitch Stewart as Arkansas' quarterbacks coach.

Stewart spent each of the last two seasons on Silverfield's staff at Memphis, serving as a senior offensive analyst in 2024 before being promoted to QB coach in 2025.

In 2025, Stewart took a new starting quarterback in Brendon Lewis and helped the Tigers to an 8-5 record, including a six-game winning streak to open the season. Lewis was steady after transferring from Nevada, passing for 2,673 yards while completing 68.8% of his passes (253-for-368) with 16 touchdowns and seven interceptions to go with 660 yards rushing and nine more scores. The Dallas native rushed for a season-best 103 yards in a win over Arkansas.

The Tigers went 11-2 capped by a victory over West Virginia during Stewart's first season in Memphis in 2024. He helped a successful offense rank 20th in the nation in passing yards per game with 270.5 yards, 26th nationally in first downs with 300 and 17th in third-down conversion percentage (.461). Quarterback Seth Henigan finished off an impressive career with 3,502 yards passing with 25 touchdowns and six interceptions while completing 64.8% of his passes (309-for-477).

Prior to Memphis, Stewart served as the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee for two seasons (2022-23). In 2023, the Blue Raiders ranked 14th nationally in completion percentage (67.4%) while passing for 3,192 yards and averaging 266.1 yards per game to rank 34th among FBS teams and fourth in Conference USA. Stewart paired the team's passing attack with a solid run game, averaging 125.1 yards per game, to rank fifth in C-USA in total offense with 391.1 yards per game. QB Nicholas Vattiato finished second in the league with 257.7 passing yards per game, throwing for 3,092 yards to become just the second Blue Raider in program history to eclipse 3,000 passing yards.

In his first season calling plays for the Blue Raiders in 2022, Stewart directed an offense that featured WR Jaylin Lane, who caught 69 passes to rank 10th all time in a single season at Middle Tennessee, and QB Chase Cunningham, who passed for 3,156 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Stewart joined the staff at Samford in 2020 as the wide receivers coach before adding the offensive coordinator duties in 2021. The Bulldogs operated a high-powered offense during his two seasons. During his season as the offensive coordinator, Samford ranked sixth nationally in the FCS in completion percentage, eighth in red zone offense, ninth in passing offense and 11th in total offense. Stewart's offense scored 52 points at Florida, including 42 in the first half, to match the most points scored by an FCS team against an FBS opponent and were the most points ever allowed by Florida against a non-conference, non-Power Five opponent since its induction in 1906.

A pair of Bulldogs – WR Montrell Washington and QB Liam Welch – ranked in the top 50 nationally in numerous offensive categories. Washington led the NCAA in all-purpose yards (1,938) and became the first FCS player since 1998 to have a rushing, receiving and kick-return touchdown against a P5 team. Stewart coached four All-Conference players during the spring season of 2021, including Welch who picked up SoCon Offensive Player of the Year honors and was a Second-Team All-American.

Stewart was the head coach at Murray State for five seasons (2015-19) after joining the Racers in 2010 as the wide receivers coach before taking over playcalling duties in 2011.

During his tenure at Murray State, Stewart saw five players make it to the NFL, including LB Quincy Williams who heard his name called in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft by Jacksonville to become the Racers' earliest pick in program history.

Stewart led the Racers to their best finish in seven years during the 2018 season, which included a 4-0 start and a win over No. 19 Southeast Missouri State – a 31-point comeback victory to become the largest comeback in program history. Six Racers earned All-OVC honors that season along with WR Malik Honeycutt and OL Levi Nesler picking up All-America honors.

During the 2017 season, Stewart coached the Racers to an upset over then No. 24 UT Martin to mark his third ranked win in two seasons. DB D'Montre Wade was named to the All-OVC First Team while WR Jordon Gandy, kicker Gabriel Vicente and QB Shuler Bentley also earned All-OVC recognition. DB Zach Shipley was placed on the Google Cloud Academic All-America list.

In his second season at the helm of the Racers in 2016, Stewart led the program to consecutive ranked wins for the first time in program history with wins over No. 15 Eastern Illinois and No. 25 Tennessee State. Stewart coached quarterback KD Humphries to become the program's all-time leader in passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts and completions. Kicker Connor Mitchell set a school record for the most field goals made in a single game with six to earn National Special Teams Player of the Week from STATS. Mitchell's 1.8 field goals made per game led the FCS.

In his first season leading Murray State, the Racers posted the second-best passing offense in the nation (347.3 ypg) and the 12th ranked offense while leading the team to its first road win since the 2012 season with a thrilling 46-43 overtime win at Tennessee State. Four players were named to All-OVC teams with QB KD Humphries finishing seventh in the STATS Offensive Player of the Year voting.

As the offensive coordinator for the Racers for four seasons, Stewart produced one of the nation's best offenses. In 2014, Murray State's passing game was ranked third in the FCS (327.2 ypg) after recording the most rushing yards in a single season (1,886) in nearly a decade the season prior. In his first two seasons as the offensive coordinator, the Racers' offense was the only team in the FCS to rank in the top five in total offense both seasons.

In 2012, Stewart coached QB Casey Brockman to All-American honors for the second-consecutive season and led him to program records in passing attempts, pass completions, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

During his first season calling plays, Stewart led Murray State's offense to 5,070 yards of total offense, including a 707-yard effort against Tennessee State.

Stewart spent the 2010 season as the wide receivers coach for the Racers and coached Marcus Harris, who produced the second-best single season in receptions, tied for second in total yards and eighth in total touchdowns in school history. Harris left Murray State as the all-time leader in receptions (216) and yards (2,471) and while earning All-American honors from the Associated Press and The Sports Network. In the same year, Stewart coached Arthur Brackett to a freshman record 62 catches in a single season for 617 yards and three touchdowns. Brackett nearly broke an FCS freshman record (15) with 13 catches against Jacksonville State.

Prior to his stint at Murray State, Stewart spent three seasons as a member of the Georgia Southern coaching staff and worked primarily with the wide receivers and handled team travel. In his second season with the Eagles, the offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 20th nationally in passing offense. WR Raja Andrews shattered three single-season records, one single-game mark and the career receptions record at Georgia Southern.

Stewart began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator at Newnan High School in Newnan, Ga., helping lead the team to its first region title in 14 years while qualifying for the state playoffs.

A four-year player at Valdosta State as a quarterback, Stewart was a part of the Blazers' 2004 national championship team and the 2002 national runner-up squad. He earned his degree in business education in 2005.

Stewart and his wife, Rikki, have two daughters, Stella and Emerson.-

MORGAN TURNER
TIGHT ENDS

Morgan Turner will be in his fourth season at Arkansas after being retained by Head Coach Ryan Silverfield to coach the Hogs' tight ends.

Arkansas' tight ends produced in a big way for the offense in 2025 led by Second-Team All-SEC selection Rohan Jones. Jones paired with Jaden Platt to catch 40 passes for 815 yards and eight touchdowns. Jones was explosive, averaging a team-best 27.3 yards per reception.

Before arriving at Arkansas, Turner spent 13 seasons at Stanford, including 10 seasons as the program's tight ends coach. During his tenure in Palo Alto, Turner built Stanford into a national brand among tight ends by producing numerous NFL tight ends such as Dalton Schultz, Austin Hooper, Coby Fleener, Levine Toilolo, Zach Ertz, Kaden Smith and most recently Colby Parkinson.

Turner's tight ends in 2024 featured a variety of skillsets and body types led by Luke Hasz, Andreas Paaske and Ty Washington, who combined for seven of the team's 16 touchdown passes. Hasz's four touchdown catches led the team with his 324 yards fourth-best on the squad. He and Paaske each caught two touchdown passes in the win at Mississippi State. The two-score game was the first of Paaske's career and his first two touchdowns as a Razorback after transferring from Eastern Michigan. Paaske's steady development throughout the season was evident as the Denmark native saw his playing time increase as a key piece of the team's run blocking.

Turner displayed his ability to build depth in his tight end room during his first season with the Razorbacks with four different tight ends drawing at least three starting assignments. Turner quickly got true freshman Luke Hasz up to speed to start the first five games of the season before a season-ending injury cut his freshman campaign short. Hasz was impressive in his first five collegiate games, catching 16 passes for 253 yards and three touchdowns. His most impressive performance came on the road at LSU in a night game that saw him haul in six passes for 116 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Ty Washington was the next man up, earning three straight starts before an injury ended his season at Florida. Washington caught 11 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns, all in a four-game span. He jumped on the scene with a seven-catch, 90-yard effort that included a pair of touchdowns at Ole Miss. Nathan Bax and Francis Sherman each started three games during their final college seasons.

The latest in Turner's long line of productive tight ends is junior Benjamin Yurosek, who caught 49 passes for 445 yards and a touchdown this past season to earn second-team All-Pac-12 honors. Yurosek's 49 receptions were second-most on the Cardinal roster and second-most among all tight ends in the Pac-12. Yurosek's sophomore campaign in 2021 was even better, leading the Cardinal with 658 receiving yards to earn honorable mention All-Pac-12. He averaged 15.3 yards per reception, recorded three games of 90+ yards receiving and hauled in 13 receptions of 20+ yards – all three ranked among the top three tight ends in the Power 5.

Parkinson is the latest of Turner's tight ends to make an impact in the NFL as a fourth-round selection by Seattle in 2020. He was a semifinalist for the Mackey Award – given annually to the nation's top tight end – and earned second-team All-Pac-12 recognition in 2019 after catching 48 passes for 589 yards and a score.

Schultz was a fourth-round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2018 after earning All-Pac-12 First Team leading a talented group of tight ends for Stanford in 2017. The unit snagged 12 of the team's 23 touchdown passes that season. Hooper is Turner's most recent All-American, having earned the distinction in 2015 after being named a finalist for the Mackey Award and first-team All-Pac-12 for catching 34 passes for 438 yards and six TDs. The Atlanta Falcons picked him in the third round of the 2016 draft.

In 2012, Turner assisted Ertz in becoming a unanimous All-American, Mackey Award finalist, first-team All-Pac-12 and a second-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles. Ertz led all FBS tight ends in 2012 in receiving yards (898) and catches (69) to go along with six touchdowns. Along with Toilolo, Stanford tight ends led the nation that season in productivity catching a combined 93 passes for 1,291 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Turner has also displayed the ability to land elite recruits while also developing tight ends. He recruited Parkinson and Schultz, who were four-star tight ends coming out of high school and molded them into top NFL draft picks. He developed three-star recruits Hooper and Yurosek into All-Pac-12 performers for the Cardinal with Hooper eventually becoming a third-round NFL selection.

Before taking over the tight ends, Turner spent two seasons at Stanford as an offensive assistant and one as a sports performance intern. Prior to Stanford, he coached quarterbacks at Indiana State for one season (2009) after getting his start in coaching at Central (Ill.) High School in 2008 as the team's quarterbacks coach and scout team coordinator.

Turner graduated from Illinois in 2009, earning a bachelor's degree in finance. The Champaign, Ill. native served as a student coach for the Illini football team in 2004 and is the son of longtime NFL and collegiate head coach Ron Turner.

Turner and his wife, Melissa, have three children, two sons, Nico and Landon, and a daughter, Mia.

LANDIUS WILKERSON
DEFENSIVE LINE

Landius Wilkerson joins the Arkansas staff from Tulane, where he served each of the last two seasons as the defensive line coach.

The Green Wave made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff during the 2025 season after winning the American Conference championship game to claim their 11th victory of the season. Wilkerson's defensive line was part of one of the nation's best pressure units with the Wave recording 36.0 sacks to rank 16th nationally and 22nd nationally in tackles for loss with 85.0. First-Team All-American Conference DL Santana Hopper led the defensive line with 4.5 sacks and was one of four Tulane players ranked in the top 20 in the American Conference. Hopper led all American Conference d-linemen with 10.5 tackles for loss and ranked fifth in the league overall. DL Tre'Von McAlpine picked up second-team all-conference honors after posting 35 stops with a pair of TFLs and one sack.

In Wilkerson's first season in New Orleans, Tulane went 9-5 with an appearance in the American Conference championship game. Tulane's defense was one of the best in the American Conference, finishing second in total defense and second in sacks. Three members of the Green Wave's defensive line earned all-conference recognition following the season with Patrick Jenkins earning first-team honors alongside Kam Hamilton and Adin Huntington, who earned third-team accolades. Jenkins and Hamilton led the squad with 4.5 sacks apiece with Huntington recording four sacks of his own. The trio also combined for 17.5 tackles for loss.

Wilkerson led the defensive line at South Alabama for three seasons, developing Bubba Thomas into a four-year starter and eventual Super Bowl LX champion with the Seattle Seahawks. Wilkerson's first d-line was led by Thomas as a freshman with the Georgia native earning honorable mention All-Sun Belt Conference after 49 tackles with 5.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Thomas again picked up an honorable mention all-conference nod in 2022 and wrapped up his career as a second-team All-Sun Belt Conference member.

During Wilkerson's time in Mobile, the Jaguars won 10 games in 2022 and received bowl bids in each of his last two seasons, including a win over Eastern Michigan in the 2023 68 Ventures Bowl.

Wilkerson spent one season at FCS level Chattanooga, coaching the Mocs' defensive line while serving as the program's recruiting coordinator. The team played just one game during the fall before

He coached defensive ends the previous two seasons at Jacksonville State, helping the Gamecocks finish .500 or better both years including going 9-4, with a 7-1 league record to claim the Ohio Valley Conference championship, after advancing to the second round of the FCS playoffs in 2018. That fall, his efforts contributed to JSU finishing second nationally in third-down conversion defense while also ranking among the top 15 in tackles for loss (seventh) and total defense (15th).

He was an assistant at Division III Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala. from 2010-17, a stretch that saw the Hawks finish with a winning record each year en route to a 42-12 overall mark highlighted by a 31-5 record in the USA South Conference over his final five seasons. Wilkerson helped Huntingdon win the league title after going 7-0 in both 2015 and 2017, with the program competing in the NCAA Division III playoffs each of his last three years on the staff featuring a victory in the first round in 2015.

Under his direction, defensive lineman D.J. Chappell became the Hawks' first All-American in school history in 2012 while d-lineman Heath McCray was an honorable mention All-America selection in 2015. In five years, Wilkerson had one individual named the USA South Defensive Rookie of the Year and six all-conference performers.

As an offensive lineman at Alabama State, Wilkerson was a team captain and three-year starter, earning All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors while helping the Hornets claim the league title in 2004. He also participated in track before receiving his undergraduate degree from ASU in mathematics education in 2005. He earned his master's degree in instructional leadership from Tennessee Tech in 2008.

Wilkerson began his coaching career as an assistant at McMinn Central HS (Tenn.), coaching at his alma mater for five seasons.

He and his wife Melody have two daughters, McKenzie and Ava.

NOAH FRANKLIN
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Noah Franklin has been named as the program's new Head Strength and Conditioning coach.

Franklin rejoins Silverfield's staff after eight seasons in Memphis, including the last six as the Director of Athletic Performance. He originally joined the Tigers' staff in 2012 as a graduate assistant working with the team's offensive line before moving into a full-time role as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He joined the Oakland Raiders' staff in 2014. With the Raiders, he worked on the creation of player workouts and programming while also leading the development and implantation of workouts for the team's practice squad.

Franklin was an offensive lineman at Oklahoma State, earning his degree in December of 2010. He spent time in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers and Detroit Lions before beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at ULM.

He and his wife, Taylor, have two children – a son, Max, and a daughter, Hailey.

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his 1964 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time – The Associated Press and the United Press International – did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion – The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation – named Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

1964 GAME-BY-GAME

ARKANSAS 14, OKLAHOMA STATE 10 — SEPT. 19, 1964 • LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

- The Hogs earned 235 yards rushing including touchdown runs by Jim Lindsey and Bobby Burnett.
- Arkansas staged a 64-yard game-winning drive in the third quarter to secure the victory.

ARKANSAS 31, TULSA 22 — SEPT. 26, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.

- Arkansas scored 31 straight points after trailing 14-0 midway through the first quarter.
- Arkansas All-American linebacker Ronnie Caveness returned an interception for a touchdown and recovered a fumble in the win.

ARKANSAS 29, TCU 6 — OCT. 3, 1964 • FORT WORTH, TEXAS

- The Razorbacks intercepted TCU six times in the victory including two thefts by defensive halfback Bill Gray.
- Arkansas quarterback Fred Marshall threw for 157 yards and scored a rushing touchdown.

ARKANSAS 17, BAYLOR 6 — OCT. 10, 1964 • LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

- Arkansas racked up 342 yards of total offense.
- The Hogs collected six Baylor turnovers including three interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

ARKANSAS 14, TEXAS 13 — OCT. 17, 1964 • AUSTIN, TEXAS

- Ken Hatfield's 81-yard punt return for a touchdown set the tone for the Arkansas victory.
- Arkansas linebacker Ronnie Caveness tallied 25 tackles against the Longhorns.

ARKANSAS 17, WICHITA STATE 0 — OCT. 24, 1964 • LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

- Arkansas blanked the Shockers in the first of its school-record-tying five straight shutouts.
- Quarterback Fred Marshall ran for a score and passed to Jim Lindsey for another in the win.

ARKANSAS 17, TEXAS A&M 0 — OCT. 31, 1964 • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

- The Arkansas defense limited Texas A&M to seven yards rushing in the final 30 minutes of the game.
- Arkansas offensive halfback Jack Brasuell scored twice on the ground in the win over the Aggies.

ARKANSAS 21, RICE 0 — NOV. 7, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.

- Rice snapped the ball in Arkansas territory on only one play the entire game.
- Harry Jones returned an Owls' errant pass for a 35-yard touchdown.

ARKANSAS 44, SMU 0 — NOV. 14, 1964 • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.

- Arkansas racked up 340 yards in total offense.
- Ken Hatfield essentially cemented his national punt return crown by returning a punt 78 yards for a touchdown against the Ponies.

ARKANSAS 17, TEXAS TECH 0 — NOV. 21, 1964 • LUBBOCK, TEXAS

- The Razorbacks tied a school record with their fifth straight shutout.
- Bobby Roper blocked two Texas Tech field goal attempts and recovered a fumble in the regular-season finale against the Red Raiders.

ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7 — JAN. 1, 1965 • COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS

- The Hogs' victory coupled with a loss by Alabama in the Orange Bowl established Arkansas as the only undefeated team in the nation. Both the Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation voted Arkansas the 1964 national champion.
- Arkansas trailed 7-3 before mounting an 80-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter to secure the win and the national crown.

Freshman of the Year*

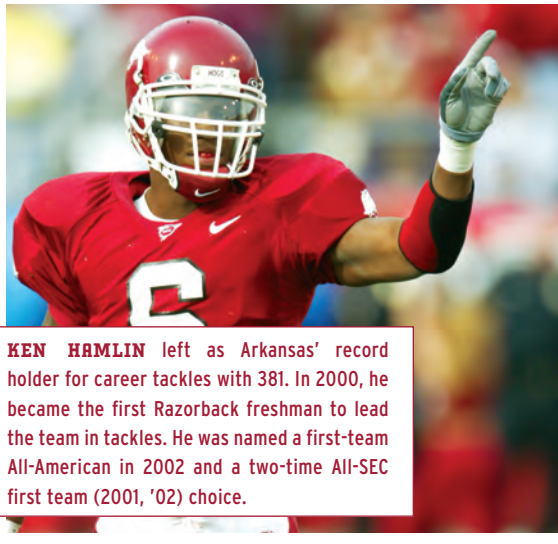
In 2023-24, LANDON JACKSON became the fifth Arkansas defensive end to earn All-SEC honors in multiple seasons.



KEN HAMLIN left as Arkansas' record holder for career tackles with 381. In 2000, he became the first Razorback freshman to lead the team in tackles. He was named a first-team All-American in 2002 and a two-time All-SEC first team (2001, '02) choice.

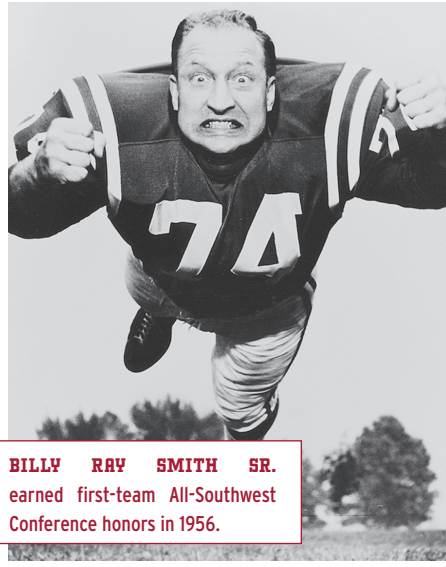
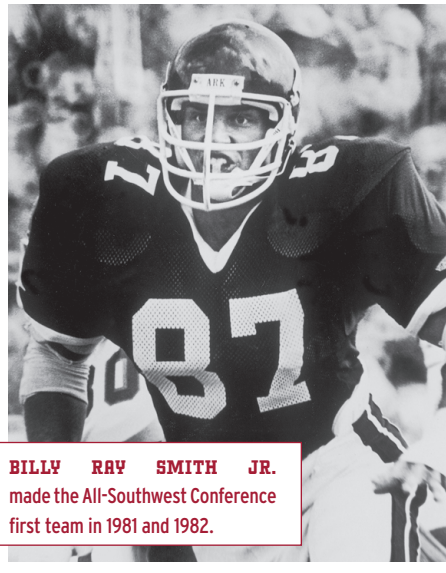
Arkansas joined the Southwest Conference in 1914*

LAMAR McHAN, who led the SWC in passing in 1953, was a three-time All-Southwest Conference selection from 1951-53.



BILLY RAY SMITH SR. earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in 1956.



BILLY RAY SMITH JR. made the All-Southwest Conference first team in 1981 and 1982.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired/honored, and in the 132 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only three players have had the honor bestowed upon them, Clyde Scott (No. 12), Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) and Darren McFadden (5).

CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT

Halfback | 1946-49
Smackover, Arkansas | Smackover High School

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice, where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success didn't come until 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career. Scott passed away in Little Rock, Arkansas, on Jan. 30, 2018, at the age of 93.

BRANDON BURLSWORTH

Guard | 1994-98
Harrison, Arkansas | Harrison High School

The athletics department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but tragically died in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletics director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

HONORED NUMBERS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired/honored, and in the 132 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only three players have had the honor bestowed upon them, Clyde Scott (No. 12), Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) and Darren McFadden (5).

DARREN McFADDEN

Running Back | 2005-07
Little Rock, Arkansas | Oak Grove High School

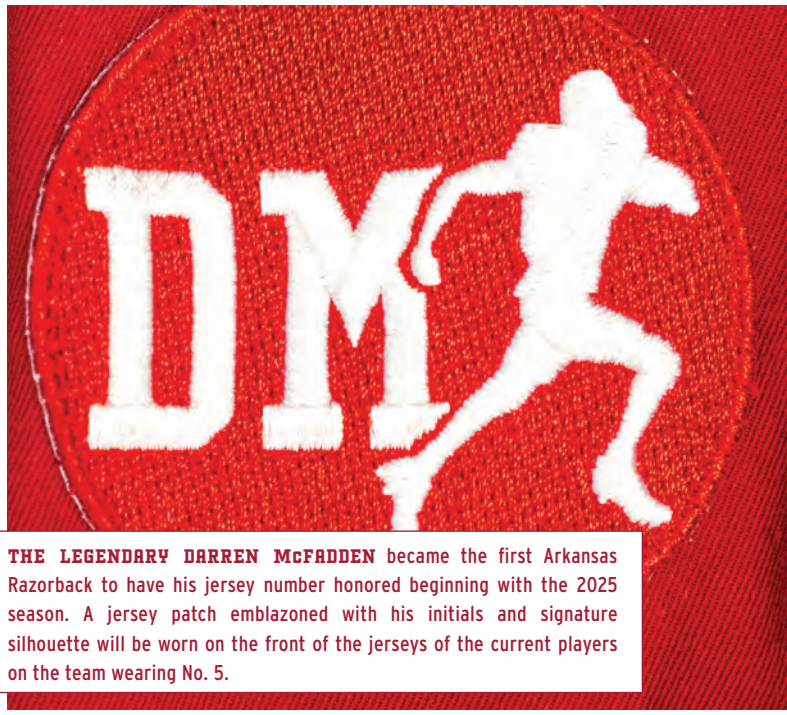
Darren McFadden – a two-time Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up – is widely regarded as one of the greatest players in program history after rushing for 4,590 yards and a school record 41 touchdowns in just three seasons before being selected fourth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2008 NFL Draft.

McFadden ranks third on the SEC career rushing list with 4,590 yards. The Little Rock native is one of three two-time winners of the Doak Walker Award (Ricky Williams, Texas, 1997-98 and Jonathan Taylor, Wisconsin, 2018-19) and one of only three players in conference history to rush for 1,000 yards in his freshman, sophomore, and junior seasons, along with former Razorback Alex Collins and Georgia great Herschel Walker. He owns the two highest rushing totals in school history, with 1,830 yards in 2007 and 1,647 yards in 2006

He arrived in Fayetteville in 2005 and immediately inserted himself into the conversation of the best running backs nationally after rushing for 1,113 yards on 176 carries (6.3 avg) for 11 touchdowns in addition to catching 14 passes for a total of 52 yards while earning SEC Freshman of the Year and Freshman All-America honors.

As a sophomore in 2006, McFadden rushed for a then-school record 1,647 yards while scoring 14 touchdowns and passing for three touchdowns. He was named a First-Team All-American and placed second in the Heisman voting.

McFadden rushed 325 times for 1,829 yards and 16 touchdowns while also recording four passing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown as a junior in 2007. He was recognized as a unanimous First-Team All-American and became the first player to finish as the Heisman runner-up in consecutive seasons since 1949.



THE LEGENDARY DARREN McFADDEN became the first Arkansas Razorback to have his jersey number honored beginning with the 2025 season. A jersey patch emblazoned with his initials and signature silhouette will be worn on the front of the jerseys of the current players on the team wearing No. 5.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 Seasons • 29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season – a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

2 Seasons • 11-7

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed more than a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

2 Seasons • 8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four-consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi State.

NORMAN PAINE
2 Seasons • 8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history – a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shut out SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN

13 Seasons • 56-60-10

Still the second-longest tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 Season • 3-7

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN TOMLIN

1 Season • 2-7

The Razorbacks managed just two wins and tied for fifth place in the Southwest Conference in their only season under John Tomlin. His brief tenure ended with one of the most lopsided losses in UA history, a 61-0 loss at Tulsa.

JOHN BARNHILL

4 Seasons • 22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS
3 Seasons • 9-21

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 – the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT
2 Seasons • 11-10

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

SEASON-BY-SEASON RESULTS

FRANK BROYLES

1958-76

19 Seasons • 144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution. He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

LOU HOLTZ

7 Seasons • 60-21-2

One of just three head coaches to lead Arkansas to six consecutive bowl appearances, Lou Holtz's first Razorback team in 1977 recorded one of Arkansas' two 11-win seasons and posted one of the biggest upsets in school history with a 31-6 win over No. 2 Oklahoma in the 1978 Orange Bowl.

HOUSTON NUTT
1998-2007
10 Seasons • 75-49

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO
4 Seasons • 34-17

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

BRET BIELEMA
5 Seasons • 29-34

Named the 32nd head coach in program history in December of 2012, Bielema came to Arkansas after having spent seven years as head coach at Wisconsin. He led Arkansas to three straight bowl appearances, highlighted by wins over Texas at the 2014 Texas Bowl and Kansas State at the 2016 Liberty Bowl. In 2014, Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents in blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss.

CHAD MORRIS
2 Seasons • 4-18

Chad Morris was named the 33rd head football in University of Arkansas history on Dec. 6, 2017. Under Morris' fast-paced, no-huddle spread attack from 2010-14, Clemson shattered 127 offensive records (89 individual, 38 team). During his three seasons at SMU (2015-17), Morris turned a 1-11 program before he took over to the program's first bowl bid since 2012 in 2017.

SAM PITTMAN
5+ Seasons • 32-34

On Dec. 9, 2019, Sam Pittman was introduced as the 34th head coach in program history. Pittman restored the pride in the program quickly, leading the Razorbacks back to a bowl game in 2021 and winning the most games in a decade. His second team also made history, winning four trophies for the first time in school history, claiming the Southwest Classic, Golden Boot, Battle Line Rivalry and Outback Bowl.

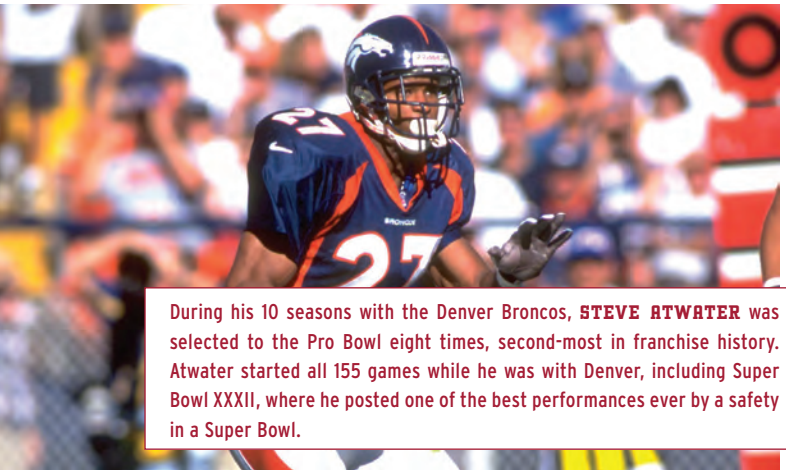
Selected with the fourth overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders, DARREN McFADDEN joined Dan Hampton as the highest choice in program history in the draft's modern era (1970-present).

PRO HOGS IN THE NFL



During his 10 seasons with the Denver Broncos, STEVE ATWATER was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, second-most in franchise history. Atwater started all 155 games while he was with Denver, including Super Bowl XXXII, where he posted one of the best performances ever by a safety in a Super Bowl.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES (367)

FELIX JONES' career 7.66 yards per carry average is a program record and over a yard better than the SEC record set by Bo Jackson (Auburn), but his 386 career carries are just short of the minimum of 400.

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the Arkansas Communications Office. University of Arkansas football student-athletes are generally available for interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to direct all interview requests to the Arkansas Communications Office. Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Please consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for practice information regarding times, days and accessibility. Prior to or following select practice sessions, select members of the football program will be available for group interviews with the media. All media members, including video and still photographers, from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the Arkansas Communications Office for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Head Coach Ryan Silverfield and student-athletes.

ARKANSAS FTP SITE

An FTP site is available for members of the media. For more information concerning the FTP site, contact Michelle Glover (mlglover@uark.edu).

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUEST

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least 10 days in advance of game day.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.
Please see media credentialing guidelines online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Arkansas Communications Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Photo identification is required when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided for the media at RazorbackStats.com.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information for accessing the network is available in the press box.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

2026 ARKANSAS FOOTBALL

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Learfield are in their 17th year of a powerful partnership that created Arkansas Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Arkansas Sports Properties (ASP) is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, ASP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. This statewide radio network covers all of Arkansas.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and airs live on the Razorback Sports Network as well as Hogs+. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and streams on Hogs+ throughout the week during football season.

CHUCK BARRETT, PLAY-BY-PLAY

Chuck Barrett is entering his 34th season broadcasting Arkansas sports and his 20th season as the football play-by-play announcer. The 2026 season marks his 32nd year on the football broadcast crew, including spending 14 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities for the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pregame show, halftime and scoreboard shows as well as the football version of the Razorback Report. He was the long time voice of Arkansas baseball, serving as the play-by-play man from 1992 to 2014. Barrett now serves as the Voice of the Razorbacks for football and men's basketball, having picked up men's basketball play-by-play duties prior to the 2010-11 season. He has been recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year three times (2007, 2008, 2009) and was inducted into the Arkansas Sportscasters and Sports Writers Hall of Fame in June of 2023.

QUINN GROVEY, ANALYST

Quinn Grovey is entering his 29th overall season on the network, including his 10th as the analyst. The former Hog quarterback previously served as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows and the network's sideline reporter. A three-year starter for the Razorbacks, Grovey led Arkansas to Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989, and was named to the program's 1980s All-Century team.

GENO BELL, CO-HOST & SIDELINE

Geno Bell enters his 10th season on the broadcast team as a sideline reporter, taking over the role from Grovey. Bell was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Razorbacks from 1993-95. He totaled 185 tackles (including 28 for loss), 11 sacks, four pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. Following his collegiate career, Bell played in the NFL with the New York Jets and the Cleveland Browns. He returned to Arkansas after his playing career and is the Vice President, Walmart Transportation Operations, East Division at the worldwide headquarters of Walmart in Bentonville.

RICK SCHAEFFER, CO-HOST

Rick Schaeffer is entering his 33rd year with Razorback football. He was the analyst for 10 seasons and is now a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. Schaeffer worked in the Arkansas Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those serving as director. Schaeffer is the co-host of Drive Time Sports on 103.7 The Buzz.

PHIL ELSON, CO-HOST

Phil Elson enters his sixth season as a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. He also serves as the play-by-play announcer for the Arkansas baseball program. Elson has 20-plus years of professional baseball broadcasting experience, including 14 seasons as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Arkansas Travelers, the former Double-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels.

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HUNTER YURACHEK

Guided by the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life, vice chancellor and director of athletics Hunter Yurachek has helped lead the University of Arkansas' Department of Athletics to unprecedented success on and off the field throughout his tenure on The Hill.

Since being introduced as the vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017, Yurachek has led efforts to make all 19 Arkansas sports successful and enhance the student-athlete experience for 465 student-athletes. Thanks to the efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches and administrators alongside the loyalty from Razorback Foundation members, season-ticket holders and fans, results are being recognized in competition and in the classroom.

Now in his ninth full year at the University of Arkansas, Yurachek has firmly positioned the Razorbacks as one of the nation's elite athletics programs having finished in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup each of the last six years. His leadership has helped build one of the nation's best all-sports programs while attracting elite coaches, including Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Men's Basketball Coach John Calipari, to Fayetteville.

Arkansas has more than made its mark in the most competitive conference in the nation, winning 43 Southeastern Conference Championships over the past eight years, including 25 conference titles in the past five years alone. Both marks lead all SEC programs and the Razorbacks' 43 titles are more than six other league programs combined in that same timeframe.

The Razorbacks extended the school-record streak to six consecutive years in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup in 2025-26 with a 14th place finish led by a pair of track and field national championships to push the department's total to 10 over the last eight years. In addition to the most recent Top 20 finish, Arkansas finished No. 11 in 2024-25, No. 18 in 2023-24, No. 13 in 2022-23, No. 7 in 2021-22 and No. 8 in 2020-21.

Arkansas added to the program's overall national championship total in 2025-26, adding national titles in men's indoor and outdoor track and field in Head Coach Doug Case's first national meets at the helm. Head Coach Courtney Deifel's softball program punched its first-ever ticket to the Women's College World Series in June after sweeping through the NCAA Fayetteville Regional and Super Regional. The GymBacks returned to the NCAA Championship for the second time during Jordyn Wieber's tenure. Maria Jose Marin led the Arkansas women's golf team to a third-place finish – the best in program history – at NCAA Championships after victory at the Augusta National Women's Amateur during the fall. Women's track and field secured podium finishes at NCAA outdoor championships (third) and NCAA indoor championships (fourth).

Coach Calipari once again led the Hogs back to the Sweet 16 after winning the SEC Tournament championship – the first for Arkansas since 2000. Three Razorbacks heard their name called in the first 35 picks of the NBA Draft in June with Darius Acuff Jr. selected seventh overall by Sacramento, Meleek Thomas 34th overall by Cleveland and Trevon Brazile 35th overall by Denver.

Along with the men's basketball's SEC Tournament title, men's track and field and soccer won SEC crowns to give the Razorbacks four during the 2025-26 year. Yurachek named Case the men's track and field head coach after Head Coach Chris Bucknam retired in December. Case responded by becoming the first coach since 1982 to win each of his first four conference and NCAA Championship meets. Colby Hale's soccer program continued to be a juggernaut in the league, winning the program's fifth trophy in seven seasons.

Yurachek named Ryan Silverfield the 35th head coach of the Razorbacks in December. Since naming Silverfield the Head Hog, the athletic department has embraced Coach Silverfield's 'All In' mantra with a renewed devotion to the football program with more resources for staff and operating costs.

The Razorbacks once again performed at a high level in the classroom with nearly half of the program's student-athletes earning SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition. A total of 113 athletes earned their degrees with an overall department GPA of 3.3, registering the department's 34th consecutive semester of at least a 3.0 GPA and 23rd straight semester with at least a 3.2 GPA. The football team recorded a program-best 3.274 GPA during Coach Silverfield's first semester on campus.

Six Arkansas teams made deep runs in the NCAA postseason during the 2024-25 year with men's basketball reaching the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in five years in Coach Calipari's first season. Powered by individual NCAA champion Maria Jose Marin, the women's golf program advanced to match play for the first time in program history. Baseball and softball hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds with Dave Van Horn leading the baseball team back to the College World Series for the eighth time in his legendary tenure before finishing ranked No. 3 in the season's final poll. The soccer program once again hosted in the NCAA postseason, making a return trip to the Sweet 16 for the third time in four years. Gymnastics advanced to a NCAA Regional final before coming up just short of a return trip to NCAA Championships.

The Hogs claimed three SEC titles with the men's cross country team securing their fourth SEC crown in five years. The men's and women's track programs delivered SEC titles with the men claiming their fifth-consecutive outdoor trophy and the women winning the program's 13th straight SEC Indoor Track & Field championship.

An incredible nine Arkansas student-athletes were named the player of the year in their respective sports during the year, including baseball's Golden Spikes Award winner Wehiwa Aloy, softball's National Player of the Year Bri Ellis and women's track's National Indoor Track Athlete of the Year Isabella Whittaker.

Arkansas student-athletes are also excelling in the classroom. In 2024-25, Arkansas student-athletes recorded the highest GPA on record with a 3.32 and marked the department's 32nd consecutive semester with at least a 3.0 GPA. Of the 19 programs, 18 posted a 3.0 cumulative GPA or better. A total of 102 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees with the program once again achieving a 100% Razorback Graduation Rate, which is based on student-athletes who complete their athletics eligibility and earn their degree.

The Razorbacks tallied two NCAA championships in 2023-24, recorded nine Top 10 national finishes and won five Southeastern Conference championships in the 2023-24 athletics season. Arkansas finished in the Top 10 at every men's and women's cross country and track and field NCAA championship contested in 2023-24 and recorded a program best Elite Eight finish in volleyball.

In February 2024, Yurachek was appointed to the prestigious College Football Playoff Committee, where he will serve for the next three seasons. He has also previously served as a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and the Football Competition Committee. Yurachek has also served on the SEC Executive Committee, which approves the annual operating budget and oversees all financial and fiscal affairs of the conference.

Yurachek was selected as a 2021-22 Football Bowl Subdivision Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year by his peers. He was also a finalist for the Sports Business Journal 2022 Athletics Director of the Year.

Yurachek's leadership is also making a difference within Arkansas, the SEC and throughout intercollegiate athletics. In 2020, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson named Yurachek to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was honored as the Arkansas Press Association Headliner of the Year in 2021 and was named the inaugural Celebrate Arkansas Influencer of the Year in 2022.

In 2022-23, the Razorbacks recorded a third-consecutive Top 15 finish with a No. 13 finish. Arkansas finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports. The Razorbacks captured two NCAA Championships (MITK, WITK), earned 13 Top 25 finishes and six Top 10 national finishes. Seventeen of 19 programs were ranked in the top 25, with eight breaking into the top 10. The Hogs won a bowl game for the second-straight year, advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's Sweet Sixteen for the third-consecutive year and won the program's first match in the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in 18 years. Arkansas won five SEC Championships (baseball, men's indoor and outdoor track and field and women's indoor and outdoor track and field).

Academically, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.20 cumulative GPA and 166 student-athletes earned academic personal bests. A total of 72 Razorback student-athletes graduated and another 12 earned graduate certificates.

In the 2021-22 academic year, Arkansas recorded the most successful year in the program's history, finishing seventh in the Learfield Directors' Cup. The Razorbacks finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports, second among SEC schools and earned only its second Top 10 Directors' Cup finish. Arkansas earned a total of nine Top 10 NCAA finishes and 12 Top 20 NCAA finishes. The Razorbacks won eight Southeastern Conference championships (men's and women's cross country, soccer, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field, softball regular season, softball tournament) and won a New Year's Day bowl game in football for the first time since 2000. In addition, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series, the Elite Eight in men's basketball and women's soccer, and the NCAA Golf Championships in both men's and women's golf.

In the classroom, Razorback student-athletes earned a then program-record 3.27 GPA and a total of 97 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees and added their names to Senior Walk in the 2021-22 academic year.

In 2020-21, Razorback Athletics earned a then program-best eighth place finish in the 2020-21 Learfield Directors' Cup. Arkansas' previous best finish, prior to 2020-21, was 14th in the competition that tracks the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs.

The Razorbacks won another NCAA title (Women's Indoor Track & Field), earned eight Top 10 NCAA finishes and a remarkable 10 Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships, including SEC triple crown sweeps in both men's and women's cross country & track and field, a second-straight soccer regular season crown, the program's first softball regular season title and a baseball regular season and tournament championship. Arkansas' championship total led the league and doubled the next closest SEC program.

Meanwhile, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.25 GPA and 104 student-athletes graduated from the University of Arkansas. A multi-million-dollar renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center was completed, while brand new facilities, including the $27 million J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center and the $15 million Frank O'Mara Track and Field High Performance Center were constructed.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including winning its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track & field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track & field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continued to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three Top 5 national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing Top 3 finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes placed 96 and 109 student-athletes on the Dean's List in the fall and spring semesters, respectively. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan, a former Marshall University football student-athlete, is the tight ends coach at Appalachian State. He and his wife Morgan reside in Boone, N.C. with their son Trace. Jake is a University of Arkansas graduate and former Razorback football student-athlete and is the co-founder of Banner Sports Group. Brooks is a redshirt junior linebacker at Appalachian State.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS) will serve as the home of Razorback Football for the 89th season during the 2026 campaign. Since opening in 1938, the Razorbacks have played 334 games at the current site, winning over 62-percent of their contests.

Located on the western side of campus, DWRRS was formerly known as Razorback Stadium before being named in honor of the late Donald W. Reynolds in 2001. The stadium will be rebranded as CommunityAmerica Razorback Stadium begining with the 2027 football season as part of a long-term partnership with CommunityAmerica Credit Union. The playing field is named in honor of former athletics director and the winningest, longest-tenured head football coach in University of Arkansas history, Frank Broyles.

Upon undergoing many modifications, DWRRS gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation. A $160 million stadium renovation and north end addition was completed prior to the 2018 season. All existing suites and club areas were renovated, and additional elevators were constructed in the northwest and northeast corners of the stadium. As part of the same project, a south video board was added in time for the 2017 season. The north end addition is home to the new Broyles Athletics Center as well as suites, loge boxes, club seats and club areas. The addition also provided new concessions and restrooms as well as a stadium-wide concourse that allows the flow of fans throughout the stadium. A new football team locker room, press conference room, other team areas and various displays celebrating Razorback history and traditions were also part of the north end addition.

Prior to the 2001 season, the stadium underwent a dramatic advancement – a $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, increased the seating capacity from 51,000 to 72,000.

The renovation included reconstructed concourses with a brick facade that completely enclosed the concrete and steel below the stands. In addition, the concourses were widened, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

Known as "Championship Alley," the east concourse displays all 13 conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse, "All-American Alley," is dedicated to the 64 Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse, "Bowl Alley," commemorates each of the program's 46 bowl teams.

Another noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chair back seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats as well as a food court with vendor space.

Along with an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, 68 luxury suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 134.

The 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club was added on the east side next to a 6,500-seat upper deck that is complemented by enclosed premium club seating. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

One of the first expansion projects occurred in 1950 and included the construction of a new press box and 5,200 more seats on the west side. Another 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957.

Earlier building efforts in 1965 and 1969 raised capacity to 42,678 – a figure held steady for more than a decade.

Prior to 2001, the last previous expansion occurred before the 1985 season and added additional seats and skyboxes, bringing the facility to 50,000 seats.

Astroturf was added in 1969. The playing surface then returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to its transition to synthetic turf in 2009. The surface reverted to a natural grass beginning with the 2019 season.

Making its debut on Sept. 24, 1938, as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7, the stadium was dedicated later that year on Oct. 8 when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center

FRANK BROYLES

For more than five decades, Frank Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In July 2014, Broyles stepped away from his day-to-day duties with the Razorback Foundation after a combined 55 years of service with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Razorback Foundation. Broyles served as Athletics Director Emeritus.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletics director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all sport program that produced 41 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments under his tenure.

On Nov. 3, 2007, Frank Broyles Field, the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, was named for the longtime head football coach and athletics director. The field was dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game in an on-field ceremony that included Broyles once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A" and a surprise visit from broadcasting legend and Broyles' former ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

On Nov. 23, 2013, a bronze statue was dedicated in Broyles honor in front of the Broyles Athletic Center. The statue, sculpted by Dr. Gary Renegar, stands seven and a half feet and weighs more than 700 pounds.

Broyles, 92, died from complications of Alzheimer's Disease, on Aug. 14, 2017.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 77 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field began hosting Arkansas football games in 1948.

Three-year Arkansas letterman and Medal of Honor recipient Maurice "Footsie" Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 54,120.

A complete lighting system and Astroturf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new $7.5 million press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission, along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department, has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.

FRED W. SMITH FOOTBALL CENTER

The 80,000 square-foot Fred W. Smith Football Center opened in 2013 and includes a spacious locker room, team meeting rooms, training room, equipment room, a student-athlete lounge and study area, coaches' offices, a recruiting reception area and football displays celebrating the tradition of Razorback Football. In the fall of 2012 as part of the football center project, two new practice fields and a parking deck were completed south of the Walker Family Training Center providing the football team with spectacular new practice venues and university faculty and students with approximately 225 covered parking spaces.

Fred W. Smith, former chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime benefactor of the University of Arkansas and Razorback Athletics, passed away at age 84 on April 29, 2018, in Santa Monica, Calif. Through his work with the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, Mr. Smith was instrumental in the university's securement of several multi-million-dollar gifts, including the Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium expansion, the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center and the Student-Athlete Development program, within Razorback Athletics.

In 2011, under Mr. Smith's leadership, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation issued a $10 million challenge grant to help generate funding for a new football operations building for the University of Arkansas. In 2013, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center was dedicated providing Razorback Football with a new home.

JONES FAMILY STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

The Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center helps address the academic, nutritional, personal and professional development of more than 460 student-athletes in an approximately 55,000 square foot facility, creating an integrated academic support program focused on graduation of all student-athletes at the University of Arkansas.

- 31 Tutor Rooms (11 large rooms for 6-8 people and 20 small rooms for 2-4 people).
- 5,000 square feet of open study/lounge space.
- 2,300 square feet of Computer Lab Space (2 computer labs – large and small).

REACHING HIGHER

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The University of Arkansas is a welcoming campus of students, faculty and staff who are determined to build a better future for Arkansas and beyond. For more than 150 years, tradition and innovation have come together to create life-changing opportunities for student success, discovery and belonging. As one of the nation's top public research universities, the U of A has been dedicated to Arkansas since 1871. Building on the record-breaking momentum created through the 150 Forward Strategic Plan, the university is reaching higher with ambitious goals to achieve an 80% graduation rate, provide every undergraduate with an immersive learning experience, ensure AI fluency across the undergraduate curriculum and double its research impact to $500 million in annual expenditures by 2032 - preparing career-ready graduates, strengthening communities and driving innovation that benefits Arkansas and the nation.

We're Reaching Higher not just to excel in advancing our land-grant mission but recommitting the entire university to maximizing its support of the state of Arkansas for decades to come.

Allison Primm, a 2023 University of Arkansas graduate and fourth generation Razorback, is helping shape one of the nation's most recognizable breakfast foods as an associate manager at Tyson Foods. Working with cross-functional teams, she oversees the planning, production, distribution, and marketing of Wright Brand and Jimmy Dean bacon, ensuring quality and consistency for millions of pounds of product served in schools, hospitals, and restaurants. Primm credits the Sam M. Walton College of Business and the connections she built at the U of A for preparing her career. Today, she says her work supports Tyson's mission of feeding people around the world.

Elijah Conley
Melbourne, AR

A first-generation college graduate, Elijah Conley turned his dream of becoming a lawyer into reality through opportunities at the University of Arkansas. A journalism and political science graduate, he credits the Honors College Path Program with helping him secure internships, leadership roles, and mentorship that led to graduating magna cum laude a year early and earning admission to Georgetown University Law Center. After graduating in 2024, passing the bar and completing a federal judicial clerkship, Conley joined a national law firm in Washington D.C. He continues to mentor U of A students, encouraging them to create opportunities for those who follow.

"The U of A gave me the chance to stay in-state while still feeling like I was stepping into something new."

Dalaiah Johnson
Little Rock, AR

Dalaiah Johnson, a public health senior from North Little Rock, found a sense of community and purpose at the University of Arkansas through campus involvement and service. Active with the Volunteer Action Center and Dream B.I.G., she says those experiences strengthened her commitment to serving others while preparing her for a career in health care. After graduation, Johnson plans to apply to dental hygiene programs and gain experience in the dental field before working in an underserved Arkansas community. She credits her public health education with inspiring her passion for improving access to preventive care and oral health education.

If you or someone you know has a story to share about everyday student successes at the U of A, please nominate them for a #MyPathToSeniorWalk spotlight to be shared on uark.edu and social media.

CHANCELLOR CHARLES F. ROBINSON

Charles F. Robinson, the seventh chancellor of the University of Arkansas, is committed to advancing the university's land-grant mission to provide opportunity and transform lives through education, research and service.

Dr. Robinson was appointed chancellor in November 2022, after serving as interim chancellor since August 2021. The U of A has set several institutional records under his leadership, including those for graduation rate, retention rate, scholarship funding and enrollment. In addition, the university conducted a record $221.5 million in research in fiscal year 2023, while investing $136 million more of its own resources into applied research facilities since 2021. Under Robinson's leadership, the university contributes over $3 billion annually to the state's economy, underscoring its role as a driver of economic growth and innovation.

Chancellor Robinson prioritizes supporting student success, augmenting the institution's research enterprise and enhancing the university's status as an employer of choice. He initiated and is guiding the $200 million Land of Opportunity Scholarship campaign, a transformative initiative aimed at bridging financial gaps for Arkansas students with the greatest financial need. Robinson has minimized, or at times frozen, tuition increases for in-state students while adding several million dollars in scholarship support for Arkansans and raising employee pay. He is also overseeing the development of world-class research facilities such as the Institute for Integrative and Innovative Research (I3R), the Multi-User Silicon Carbide Research and Fabrication Facility (MUSiC), and the Anthony Timberlands Center for Design and Materials Innovation – helping ensure the university remains a leader in applied research that solves real-world problems, improves lives and strengthens the economy.

Robinson became chancellor after serving the U of A in several capacities over the course of more than two decades. He joined the university as an assistant professor of history in 1999 and was promoted to full professor in 2011. He was then promoted to positions of increasing responsibility, including vice chancellor for Student Affairs and provost and executive vice chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

Before becoming chancellor, Robinson led initiatives such as Advance Arkansas – a $10 million scholarship effort for first-generation, low-income Arkansans – and the College Access Initiative, a need-based college readiness outreach program serving students and under-resourced schools statewide. Under his leadership, the university constructed Adohi Hall, which is the only residence hall in the United States to use sustainable cross-laminated timber. Robinson also oversaw an expansion of Pat Walker Health Center and led strategic planning for the university's 71,000 square foot Student Success Center.

An accomplished historian, Robinson's research and teaching focus on southern history. He has earned many awards for his teaching, including the Fulbright College Master Teacher Award, Arkansas Student Alumni Board Teacher of the Year, and induction into the university's Teaching Academy.

Robinson holds a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Houston, a master's degree in history from Rice University and a doctorate in history from the University of Houston.

Known as an engaged and approachable leader on campus, Robinson is also heavily involved with multiple regional, state and national organizations including recent or current roles on the Arkansas Research Alliance Board of Directors, AETN Foundation Board, Northwest Arkansas Council Advisory Committee, ARVEST Bank Board of Directors, National Merit Scholarship Corporation Board of Directors, Center for First-Generation Student Success Advisory Board and the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities Council of Presidents.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, SYSTEM PRESIDENT & FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serves as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts, and two at-large appointees. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

DR. PAUL ADAMS
FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Paul Adams, professor of biochemistry in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry and faculty member in the U of A's interdisciplinary cellular and molecular biology program, earned a B.S. in biochemistry from Louisiana State University and a Ph.D. in biophysical chemistry from Case Western Reserve University.

Adams' research and scholarly activities have garnered federal funding from the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Foundation, as well as from state agencies such as the Arkansas Biosciences Institute, the Arkansas Science and Technology Authority and the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Foundation at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

He has directed the research projects of over 70 honors, undergraduate, graduate and postdoctoral students in his laboratory at the university and has mentored many other students since arriving to the U of A.

Honors and awards Adams has recently received include: the William and Wilma Haines Distinguished Lecturer in Biochemistry, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, IN (2017); the Distinguished Faculty Award from The Honors College (2017); Top 10 Most Outstanding Faculty Member, U of A Student Government and Student Alumni Associations (2018); Faculty Researcher National Role Model, National Minority Access Inc. (2019); Lifetime Achievement Award, Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Council (2020).

Adams' most recent accomplishment came in the form of an election to the Executive Board of Directors of the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers in the summer of 2020.

Since 2017, Adams has served as principal investigator of an NSF grant that funded the U of A's Honors College Path Program, which recruits talented high school students from underrepresented populations to help them thrive and succeed at the university.

In December 2019, Adams was selected as a member of the first cohort of the UARK Leaders Program, a program offered through the Office of the Provost, the Office of Human Resources and Walton College of Business Executive Education. This new leadership development program was launched to support the professional growth of influential and up-and coming university leaders while enhancing collaboration and innovation on campus.

GREG SANKEY, COMMISSIONER, SEC

Greg Sankey became the eighth Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and has successfully built upon the SEC's recognized success, strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey has effectively introduced change and innovation for the conference while respecting the institutional traditions that make the SEC unique. With an understanding of the highly competitive environment of college sports, he has fostered the collaborative culture of the SEC that sets the conference apart and supports its continuing success.

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position through continuing focus on a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and reputation for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

Sankey has built upon the foundation set in his first major address as the conference leader in 2015 when he stated, "Educating scholars and supporting champions provides the platform for developing leaders who will influence the world." His relentless focus on providing resources for student-athlete success continues to make the Southeastern Conference a leader in college athletics.

LEADERSHIP IN A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT

When the NCAA sought to navigate a changing landscape for college athletics, it called on Sankey to co-chair its Division I Transformation Committee, a body of college sports leaders tasked with addressing the most significant challenges in college athletics, to support student-athletes more effectively, and even reimagine the future of college sports.

And it was not the first time Sankey stepped forward at a crucial time for college sports. Sankey's leadership through the COVID-19 pandemic served the SEC well as the league prepared for a return to action in the fall of 2020. Sankey fostered a culture of collaboration among the leaders of the Conference in order to allow the SEC's 14 schools to move together through difficult and unprecedented decisions.

While the pandemic had a devastating effect on the finances of college athletics programs across the country, Sankey kept focus on the long-term financial vitality of the SEC. In 2020, Sankey and his team finalized a milestone 10-year agreement with the Walt Disney Company that grants ABC and ESPN exclusive broadcast rights to premier SEC football and basketball events beginning in 2024-25 and continuing through 2033-34.

Less than a year after the blockbuster agreement with Disney, the SEC made news again as Sankey ushered the University of Oklahoma and University of Texas through membership discussions and announced the two leading universities will join as members with the SEC's nationally prominent institutions.

ADVOCATING FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITY

Throughout his career, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with challenging leadership opportunities and expanded resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic and competitive success. Student-athlete focused initiatives introduced under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creation of a leadership position in the SEC office for Student-Athlete Engagement, a role focused on offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership.
- Introduction of Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which provide student-athletes with enhanced opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff.
- Introduction of a Student-Athlete Career Tour which provides groups of student-athletes with opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses in major metropolitan areas.
- Expansion of the student-athlete role at the annual SEC Spring Meetings when student-athlete leaders participate in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders.

ADVANCING THE CONFERENCE

Sankey has been intentional and diligent in addressing issues critical to college athletics, with an emphasis on integrity, ethics, sportsmanship and diversity including:

- Development of updated Conference policies governing conduct expectations for student-athletes, including the adoption of a serious misconduct policy governing transfers that has served as a model for similar policies adopted by other conferences. The policy was later expanded to include all incoming prospective student-athletes.
- Creation of the SEC Council on Racial Equity and Social Justice, a league-wide body consisting of a diverse group of student-athletes, administrators, coaches and SEC staff. The Council identifies resources, outlines strategies and assists with implementation of efforts that promote racial equity and social justice, fosters diversity and helps overcome racism and pursues non-discrimination in intercollegiate athletics.
- Crafting a new SEC bylaw aimed at encouraging, facilitating and assisting member institutions in attracting and hiring individuals in historically underrepresented groups in leadership positions of their athletics programs.

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is growing exposure for the Conference and effectively publicizing success stories of the SEC. Strategies pursued to achieve this objective include:

- Ongoing collaboration with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports and other unique programming.
- Engagement with a national marketing agency to develop and maintain a comprehensive branding campaign. The theme – "It Just Means More" – communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world.
- Introduction of the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms in every sport to provide recognition of SEC student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics.

A CAREER IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

On March 12, 2015, the Presidents and Chancellors of the SEC announced Greg Sankey would succeed Mike Slive as Commissioner of the SEC.

Sankey, 59, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Before moving to the SEC, Sankey served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named its commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA, as well as coach of the Demons' golf team. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Utica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, NY, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, AL, and have two adult daughters, Hannah (and her husband, Rod) and Moriah.

SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Southeastern Conference's top two teams will meet in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 35th-annual title game is set for December 6 and will be televised nationally by ABC.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage.

The 2017 SEC Championship Game was the highest rated game in the nation for the entire regular season. No. 7 Georgia's 28-7 win over No. 2 Auburn drew an average overnight rating of 8.4 and 18 share, the best for CBS since 2013, when the Iron Bowl drew an 8.6/18 rating and share.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2031. The agreement allows the SEC the option of exercising an additional five-year extension that could keep the game in Atlanta through 2036.

The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 21 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: FLORIDA 38, ARKANSAS 28

Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas. Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21. Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three. Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: GEORGIA 30, ARKANSAS 3

Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus. Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards. Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game. The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line. On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin. Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: FLORIDA 34, ARKANSAS 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory. Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times. Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.
